

MARUHA NICHIRO

海といのちの未来をつくる

Maruha Nichiro is the largest fishing / fish related business company in the world.

- Head office : Tokyo, Japan
- 140 years of history from establishment
- Annual turn over : 920,000 Million Yen (= USD 8,400 Million)
- Sales distribution : 80% in Japan, 6% in USA, 5% in EU, 5% in Asia, & 5% others.
- Employees : 11,276 in total as a group
- Totally 153 group companies world wide, half of them in Japan and the other half outside of Japan.
- Huge comprehensive food company, has its operation from fishing, fish farming, re-processing, canned food, ready meals, pharmaceutical, animal meat, and international and domestic trading.

- Fish supply from Nordic Europe, including Iceland, is a very important part of Maruha-Nichiro's food supply chain.
- From Iceland, Maruha Nichiro import:
 - Capelin & Capelin Roe
 - Redfish
 - Greenland Halibut
 - Mackerel
 - Herring